FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Family Assistance Centers help military families

When soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines are away serving their country, the staff of the Wisconsin National Guard's Family Assistance Centers is ready to help families on the home front. Located in seven Wisconsin locations, FACs are easy-to-reach, one-stop shops for information and assistance.

The Family Assistance Center staff puts service members and their families in touch with personnel or programs that meet their individual needs during and after deployments. For assistance visit one of the following locations during its operating hours or call the 24 hour hotline at 1-800-292-9464.
